DE REPUBLICA NON DESPERARE.

No. 22. PITTSBURGH, OCTOBER 22, 1816. Vol. 31

FOR SALE,

That very Valuable Real Estate called

HAMILTON HALL.

THE subscriber, wishing to remove from the country to a town, offers for sale, his beautiful FARM, on which he now resides, ten miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the southwest bank of the Monongahela river, and two miles from M'Keesport. on the confluence of the Youghioghany and Monongahela rivers, and nearly opposite the mouth of Turtle creek.

This tract consists of about 275 acres of choice land, of which there is nearly 140 acres of first rate river and run bottom—the remainder is excellent tillable upland—there is about 90 acres of river bottom land cleared, which will produce as good corn and grass crops as any in the western country. In point of beauty, as well as excellent quality, this farm is excelled by none. The dwelling house is spacious, 72 feet in length, and one and a half story high, very neat and handsomely finished; a large barn with stables underneath, besides a horse stable, and other out houses, two tenant houses, and an excellent new Saw-mill, with a fall of 22 feet, and a stream of water sufficient for the purpose, for nearly nine months in the year. The same seat will admit of a grist or other mills also. There are several excellent springs for distilling: a handsome garden, stocked with all kinds of shrubbery; a young thriving Orchard, of the best fruit, and more than 3000 sugar trees on said farm.

If desired, there will be sold with the estate 100 full blooded, three fourths, and half blooded MERINO SHEEP, of superior quality and beauty, besides horses, cows, &c. and all kinds of farming utensils. The proximity to Pittsburgh and its excellent market, which unquestionably is the best in the Union, and the convenience as well by land as by water, makes it one of the most desirable and valuable estates in the western country; not only the bottoms but a considerable part of the upland, is excellently calculated for meadow. A full description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed the property will not be purchased without viewing it; however, it is calculated the estate will clear from 2500 to $3000 per annum, if well attended to. It is clear of all incumbrance, and an indisputable title will be given.

Besides the above, the subscriber will sell three excellent tracts of BOTTOM LAND, situate about five miles from Harmony, and nine miles from Beaver, 25 miles from Pittsburgh, on the Conequenessing. This land is of the very best quality for meadow or corn; each tract has an improvement upon it; one a saw mill; and another, a good dwelling house, barn, &c.

Manners and Customs.

A DAY IN LONDON.

From a work just published in New York.

In the following description of some of the moral features of London, we may see more to gratify curiosity than excite either envy or admiration.

"In the morning all is calm—not a mouse stirring before ten o'clock; the shops then begin to open. Milk women with their pails perfectly neat, suspended at the two extremities of a yoke, carefully shaped to fit the shoulders, and surrounded with small tin measures of cream, ring at every door with reiterated pulls to hasten the house servants, who come half asleep to receive a measure as big as an egg, being the usual allowance of a family, for it is necessary to explain, that milk is not either food or drink here but a tincture—an elixir exhibited in drops, five or six at most in a cup of tea, morning and evening. It would be difficult to say what taste or what quality these drops may impart; but so it is, and no body thinks of questioning the propriety of the custom.—Not a single carriage—not a cart is seen passing. The first considerable stir is the drum and military music of the guards marching from the barracks to Hyde Park, having at their head three or four negro giants, striking high, gracefully and strong, the resounding cymbal.—About three or four o'clock the fashionable world show some signs of life, issuing forth, to pay visits, or rather leave cards at the doors of friends, never seen but in the crowd of assemblies to go to the shops, see sights or lounge in Bond street—an ugly, inconvenient street, the attractions of which it is difficult to understand. At five or six they return home to dress for dinner. The streets are then lighted from one end to the other, or rather edged on either side with two lines of little brightish dots, indicative of light, but yielding in fact very little; these are the lamps. They are not suspended in the middle of the streets as at Paris, but fixed on irons eight or nine feet high, ranged along the houses. The want of reflectors is probably the cause of their giving so little light. From six to eight the noise of wheels increases: it is the dinner hour. A multitude of carriages with two eyes of flame staring in the dark before each of them, shake the pavement and the very houses, following and crossing each other at full speed. Stopping suddenly, a footman jumps down, runs to the door, and lifts the heavy knocker—gives a great knock, then several smaller ones in quick succession, then with all his might, flourishing as on a drum, with an art and an air, and a delicacy of touch, which denote the quality, the rank and the fortune of his master.

"For two hours, or nearly, there is a pause; at ten a redoublement comes on. This is the great crisis of dress, of noise and of rapidity—an universal hubbub; a sort of uniform grinding and shaking, like that experienced in a great mill with fifty pair of stones; and if I was not afraid of appearing to exaggerate, I should say it came upon the ear like the falls of Niagara, heard at two miles distance! !—This crisis continues undiminished till twelve or one o'clock; then less and less during the rest of the night—till at the approach of day, a single carriage is heard now and then at a great distance.

"Great assemblies are called routes or parties; but the people who give them, in their invitations only say that they will be at home such a day, and this some weeks beforehand. The house in which this takes place, is frequently stripped from top to bottom; beds, drawers, and all but ornamental furniture, is carried out of sight to make room for a crowd of well dressed people, received at the door of the principal apartment by the mistress of the house standing, who smiles at every new-comer with a look of acquaintance. Nobody sits; there is no conversation, no cards, no music—only elbowing, turning and winding from room to room; then at the end of a quarter of an hour, escaping to the hall door to wait for the carriage, spending more time upon the threshold among footmen than you have done above stairs with their masters.—From this route you drive to another, where, after waiting your turn to arrive at the door, perhaps half an hour, the street being full of carriages, you alight, begin the same round, and end in the same manner."

I wake—'tis four o'clock in the morning! The whole broad street of Alcali is spread before me like an immense square—churches, palaces and convents, at the further end the shady walks of the Prado—a grand sublime sight baffling description.

The matin bell announces the early mass, the streets become more animated—Veiled women in black, men in long brown cloaks with redisillas, wearing their hair in a kind of net work, hanging low down their back. The doors of all the balconies open, and water is sprinkled out before every house.

Now the goat-keepers with their little herds enter the gates, crying milk, milk! fresh and warm! who will have any? There I see market women pass by with their asses loaded with vegetables, bakers with bread, in carts made of Spanish reed—water carriers and porters hastening to commence their day's work, while with a hoarse voice two consequential looking alguazils proclaim the theft committed on the preceding night.

By degrees, all the warehouses, shops, and boothes are opened. The publicans (taberneros) expose their wine cups; the chocolate women get their pots ready—the water carriers begin to chaunt their "Quin bebe?" (who'll drink?) and the hackney coach and hackney chaise drivers, with the persons who let mules for hire, take their usual stands.

Soon the whole street resounds with various cries of numberless criers—Cod, white cod! Onions, onions from Gallicia! Walnuts, walnuts from Biscay!—Oranges, oranges from Murica! Hot smoaked sausages from Estramadura! Tomates, large tomates! sweet citrons, sweet citrons! Barley water! Ice water! A new Journal! a new Gazette! Water melons! Long Malaga raisins! Olives, olives from Seville! Milk rolls, fresh and hot! Grapes, grapes! Figs, new figs! Pomegranates, pomegranates from Valencia!

It strikes ten; the guards mount; dragoons, Swiss regiments, Walloon guards, Spanish infantry, "Alos ples vin Donne Manuela!" (Let us go to mass.)

All the bells are ringing, all the streets are covered with rock roses, rich carpets hanging from every balcony, and altars raised on every square, under canopies of state. The procession sets out. What a number of neat little angels, with pasteboard wings covered with gilt paper! images of saints with fine powdered bob wigs, and robes of gold brocade! What swarms of priests! How many beautiful girls! all pleasant and in mixed groupes.

The clock proclaims noon day. We return through the square of the Puerto del Sol. All the rifus (raffles) have begun, all the hackney waiters are busy and the whole square thronged with people.

One o'clock—we are all called to dinner; a great deal of saffron; many love apples, plenty of oil and pimento! But then, wine from La Mancha, oil Ceres and Malaga! What a nice thing is Spanish cookery.

La Siesta! La Siesta! Senores! A deadly silence is in all the streets, all the window shutters are put up or the curtains let down; even the most industrious porter stretches his length on his mat, and falls asleep at the fountain with his picther behind him.

At four o'clock every body repairs to the bull fight, to the carnal, or to the prado, all in gaiety and merriment, one equipage after another drive full speed to those places of diversion.

The Puerto del Sol becomes crowded as before and the water carriers and the orange women, the procuresses of the frail fair, are all as busy as bees.

Thus passes the afternoon; and the dusky shades of evening set in at last. All the bells ring and every Spaniard says the prayer of salutation to the virgin.

Now all hasten to the tertulias and theatres, and in a few minutes the rattling of carriages resounds in every street. The lamps before the houses of the images of the Virgin are already lighted; the merchants and dealers have illuminated their houses and shops, and the sellers of ice, water, and leomonade, their atalls. Every where are seen rush lights, paper lanthorns, and bougies on the tables of fruit women and cake men.

Meanwhile the crowd on the squares has prodigiously increased, and it is soon stowed with people. In part you will hear the soft sounds of the guitar, senuidilla; in another, a female ballad singer tells in rhyme the tale of the last murder committed; in a third a thundering missionary attempts to move the hearts of obdurate sinners while the light footed Cyprian corps carries off his audience by dozens. Soon passes the rosary and tattoo with music, and the equipages returns from the threatres.

It grows still later; the crowds begin to disperse—by one o'clock in the morning all the streets are still and quiet, and only here and there resounds a solitary guitar through the solitary gloom of night.

NEW YORK, October 11.

The ship Madelana, Capt. Welden, belonging to Messrs. Hall & Robbins of this city, arrived at Philadelphia yesterday morning, in 33 days from Teneriffe. On the 27th of August, four days before the Madelana sailed, the British Packet Brazil, arrived off the port in 11 days from Gibraltar, bound home; and her commander, who came on shore, stated, that the Dey of Algiers had been put to death, and his son proclaimed successor; and that, on assuming the reins of Government, the son immediately annulled the Treaty which his Father had made with Commodore Decatur.

The Commander of the Packet also stated, that the American and British squadrons were to unite in the attack upon Algiers; and confirmed the account of the capture of the British Packet Walcheren by an Algerine Cruizer. What reliance is to be placed in the reports of the English Commander, we know not. He must have left Gibraltar two or three days later than the latest advices before received.

FROM FRANCE—Latest.

The brig Governor-Carver, Capt. Dothen, arrived here yesterday from Havre. We are again indebted to the politeness of a friend for Paris Journals to the 25th August.

In France things continued tranquil and settled. The public Stocks were stationary, but low. Executions for political offences had ceased. The birth day of Louis 18th (feast of St. Louis) was celebrated the 25th August with great splendor and festivity.

In the Nations of Europe reductions of the armed force were daily taking place

Translations from the Papers.

Paris Aug 24. The trials of the traitors included in the decree of July 1815, and who are in foreign countries have ended; and they have all been condemned (for contumacy) to death. The Generals Lallemand, brothers, were the last condemned.

Gen Koscuisko has left Switzerland for Italy, in company with Lord Stewart.

A terrible quarrel took place the 11th inst. at Mentz, between two parties of Austrians and Prussians in garrison there. They fired upon each other, and several were killed and wounded, before the officers could suppress the riot.

"Paris Aug. 25. All accounts agree that in the memory of no man living, has there been a season so cold—they observe there has been no Summer. Such however, is the fertility of our soil, the crops will be tolerable good. Rice, &c. are not recommended to be sent. None of the bankruptcies which have taken place in England and America, have reached here."

Hurricane in the West Indies.—Captain REID, who arrived at Charleston on the 2d. inst. from Dundee, states that on the 20th. ult. "in lat. 31, 24, long. 63, he spoke a Danish brig, 14 days from St. Croix for Copenhagen, the captain of which gave him information that about the 2d of September, a most tremenduous hurricane was experienced at St. Croix and the other West-India Islands; that about sixty sail of vessels were lost; that he was on shore at its commencement, and his brig was blown out to sea, where she remained for three days; that a vessel was dispatched in search of her, which fortunately fell in with and brought her in. Captain R. could obtain no further particulars.

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

Marks J. Biddle, Esq. a distinguished and undeviating federalist has been elected to the Senate of Pennsylvania, by the district composed of the counties of Berks and Schuylkill. Mr. Biddle's majority is nearly one thousand votes over the Democratic candidate. The county of Schuylkill also returns a federal member to the Assembly. This district has been heretofore democratic.

Charles Smith, federalist, is elected from Lancaster county.

Maskell Ewing, federalist, from Chester and Delaware counties.

Joseph Dysart, democrat, from Mifflin and Huntingdon counties.

In Bedford, Somerset and Cambria counties, the Democratic ticket carried throughout. Alex inder Ogle is elected to congress without opposition.

Messrs. M'Clay and Boden, both Democrats, are elected to Congress from the district composed of the counties of Franklin, Adams and Cumberland.

Joseph Heister (dem.) is elected from Berks and Schuylkill counties.

James Wallace and John Whiteside (dem.) are elected from Lancaster, Dauphin and Lebanon counties.

William P. Maclay (dem.) is elected from Mifflin, Centre and Huntingdon counties.

In the State of Delaware, Col. Clarke, the Federal candidate for Governor is elected.

L. M'Clane, a federalist, and W. Hall, a democrat, are elected to Congress. Mr. Hall's election was owing to a division of the Federal party.

The result of the election of Delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, has been such as the federalists expected; in fourteen Counties Federal Delegates have been elected; the remaining five Counties, one in the Eastern and four on the Western Shore, and the Cities of Baltimore and Annapolis have chosen Democrats; the strength of parties in the state government will therefore be as follows:

House of Delegates.

Federalists - - - - -	56
Democrats - - - - -	24
Federal majority - - -	32
Senate while Federal - -	15
Federal majority on joint ballot	47

The Governor and Council are to be chosen by a joint ballot of the Senate and House of Delegates.

M. Carey, of Philadelphia, has issued proposals for publishing by subscription, "The history of the United States, from the first settlement of the country to the year 1808," by the venerable and lamented Dr. Ramsay; continued to the Peace of Ghent, by Dr. Smith, of Princeton. It will make three octavo volumes, at 3 dollars a volume in boards, and 3 50 neatly bound.

We are informed that the United States brig Saranac, commanded by Lt. Elton, has arrived at her anchoring ground near the Bay of St. Louis, a few days ago: she has been down the Mexican Bay, and Lt. Elton had the pleasure of seeing the magnanimous fleet of the Dons that insulted Lt. Cunningham, but from prudential motives the Dons, who could out sail the Saranac, kept at a respectful distance—for three days did Lt. Elton endeavour to get within hailing distance, but without avail.

A Hoax was lately played off upon the inhabitants of Richmond, Va. by a stranger, calling himself Vanhorn, who gave out that a Mr. Vanette, lately from France, would, at a certain time, ascend in a balloon, and remain suspended 200 feet in the airy regions. Meantime Mr. Vanhorn busied himself in collecting subscriptions and money against the arrival of Mr Vanette. The period at length came for the ascension—people thronged to the appointed spot—but no Vanhorn or Vanette appeared; and the assemblage at length dispersed, convinced that they had been hoaxed out of their money, and were the dupes of an impostor. About 200 or 300 dollars were collected by Vanhorn in Richmond, who, after thus taking the people in, took himself off.

Unhappy Catastrophe.—Yesterday morning, says the Georgetown Messenger, of Sept. 12, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, Tobias Lear, Esq. accountant of the War Department, put a period to his existence, by shooting himself through the head. We have not as yet learnt the causes which led to the perpetration of this unhappy deed. Mr. Lear was naturally cheerful and pleasant; on the fatal morning, Mr. L. breakfasted with his family in his usual good humor, and was proceeding as they thought to his office, when the report of a pistol was heard from the back part of the yard—Mr. Lear, son of the deceased, immediately proceeded to the spot from whence the sound appeared to issue, and found his father weltering in his blood.

THE TREASURY.

We have understood from very respectable authority, that a Secretary of the Treasury has been appointed in the place of Mr. Dallas, resigned, and that it is expected he will enter on the duties of his office in a few days. We have not heard positively who the gentleman is, but it is rumoured that the Hon. Wm. H. Crawford, from the war department, has had the offer: and as the Treasury is the most important office at this time under the government, and ranks in honour next to the department of state, we can see no reason why he should not accept it. Mr. Crawford is a gentleman of talents, possesses much energy and decision of mind, and has hitherto manifested much zeal and attention in the discharge of his official duties.

Nashville, October 9.

The Court Martial, convened at Nashville for the trial of Gen. Bissel, have some time since determined on the charges, which are very numerous, and have sentenced the General to be reprimanded in general orders, and restored to his command—the Major General has approved the sentence, and reprimanded him in an order of the 25th of September. Most of the charges were not examined into at all, being alledged to have been out of date.

The Americans are busily employed in rendering Niagara one of the strongest fortresses in the United States. On the land side they are extending the works by strong redoubts: and on the river they are constructing shelving batteries almost even with the water, which they properly call marine fortifications. Whether these works of defence or offence, have given rise to suspicion in Fort George, we cannot pretend to determine; but we are credibly informed that the British commandant has lately become very particular about the spot where every boat is to land, and has prohibited British citizens from amusing themselves at shooting or fishing on certain parts of the common beach, which had always in times of peace been as free to them as the air they breathed. In consequence of this order of the commandant, Thomas Racey, Esq. and a son of the honorable Wm. Dickson, have been put into confinement, for amusing themselves on the sacred ground of the public in a time of profound peace! We soon expect further particulars respecting this disagreeable occurrence. Montreal Herald, Sept. 28.

St. LOUIS, September 28.

By several arrivals from the upper Mississippi and the Lake, we are informed that Major Gratiot of the engineer corps was progressing in building the new fort at Green Bay; he has with him Col. Chambers, and 3 or 4 companies. The Falsavoins are said to be peaceably inclined. A party of Winebagoes solicited Col. Chambers to send off from Green Bay the big guns, but were told that the President of the U. S. ordered them to be placed there, and they could not be removed without his order.

Yesterday we received information from Prairie du Chien, that the upper country overwhelmed with British goods and British traders, from Mackinaw. They are the very same characters who infested this country previous to the late war; the very same gentry who whetted the savage tomahawk and urged the massacre of our women and children. It is rumored here that this influx of traitors is occasioned by the Indian Agent at Mackinaw granting licenses indiscriminateley at 50 dollars each. This measure has thrown into the country more British traders than the government consider expedient or the Agents could consistently with their instructions permit. By the undue influence of these fellows, the Indians assume very consequential airs, and are intolerable insolent to our citizens, declaring that the English have told them truth, and that the Americans always tell them lies. On the arrival of our traders at Prairie du Chein they engaged all the Sioux interpeters, so that our traders with a large amount of goods were at once frustrated in their pursuits by the intrigue of these wretches yet red with the blood of our frontier citizens. Roulette and several other notorious characters of the above mentioned tribe, are on their way to St. Louis and Kaskaskia for license to trade with the Indians. The policy Gov. Clark has pursued with the British traders who have applied for license is calculated to keep those poisonous animals from the Indian tribes in our neigborhood. We shall wait the descision of Gov. Edwards on this subject.

Richmond, (Va.) October 9.

HIGHLY INTERESTING.------Is is whispered, that information has been received from an officer of high rank in the United States' army, in the south, (neighbourhood of New-Orleans) that he expected to be attacked by the Spaniards. It is added, that a consultation has been held at Washington, in consequence; and it is surmised that a strong naval force is to be sent to cruise in that direction, say the Gulph or vicinity of Florida, to ascertain the movements, and if necessary, to prevent the landing of a hostile force.

Gov. Brooks, of Massachusetts, has appointed Thursday, the 28th of November, to be observed throughout that state as a day of "Praise and Thanksgiving." The proclamation of Gov. Brooks is a well written, appropriate and interesting production. Our readers will doubtless be gratified with the opportunity of perusing the following paragraphs:—

"I have thought fit to appoint, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, I do hereby appoint, THURSDAY the Twenty Eighth day of November next, to be observed, throughout this Commonwealth, as a day of PRAISE & THANKSGIVING to God, for the renewed and multiplied instances of His providential care and beneficence they have experienced in the course of the last year. And the people of all religious denominations are invited, and earnestly requested, to assemble on that day, conformably to the example of our fathers, in their respective places of public worship, gratefully and devoutly to acknowledge the Divine favor and munificence: In that the Supreme Disposer of our destinies and of all events, has preserved our lives, and so far prospered our agriculture and fisheries as to afford the cheering hope of a competent supply of the necessaries of life: That the people have so generally been blessed with health in their habitations, and large measures of social and individual happiness: That our Constitutions of Government, and our civil and religious privileges are continued to us; and that He has guided our Nation in the way of peace.

"And while with one voice we reverently offer to the God of our fathers and the fountain of all good, the sacrifice of thanksgiving, may we be suitably affected with a consciousness of our own demerit: and to an ingenuous confession of ingratitude to our Heavenly Benefactor, of listlessness to our duty, and frequent violations of it, let us add fervent and sincere, and united supplications to the Throne of Grace, for the remission of all our transgressions, upon the terms of the Gospel, as revealed and offered to us by Jesus Christ, who has once appeared to put away sin by one offering, the sacrifice of himself, and that we, being made partakers of the light and hope of the Gospel, may be filled with the fruits of righteousness; with that wisdom that is pure, peaceable and gentle, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy:—That God will be pleased to preserve us from the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and from the destruction that wasteth at noonday: That He will bless and prosper all the lawful enterprizes and the daily secular employments of the people: That He will have mercy on the poor and supply them with bread; giving them withal patience and resignation under the Divine allotments; That He will inspire the affluent with sentiments of benevolence and liberality, and make them rich in works of charity and beneficence: That He will vouchsafe to regard with His special favour, the interests of Religion, and grant to the Christian Church a succession of able and faithful teachers: That He will be pleased to take our nation into His most holy keeping, and exalt it by righteousness: That He will bless the President of the United States, guide the deliberations of the National and State Legislatures, and continue peace on our borders: That He will preserve the union of the States, and delight to build us up, and make us a virtuous & a happy people: That He will smile upon and render eminently useful our Universities and Colleges; bless our Schools; and guide with tokens of His parental kindness, the rising generation: That He will graciously condescend to succeed and prosper the efforts of all societies and individuals, designed and adapted to mitigate the evils incident to human life—to strengthen and confirm the principles of social order to enlarge and multiply the means of attaining moral and intellectual excellence, to discountenance and suppress vice—to place the BIBLE in the hands of the poor and needy, and to diffuse the knowledge of the sacred Scrpitures among all the unbelieving and idolatrous nations of the world; and that the benign religion of the Prince of Peace, being universally disseminated through the earth, may take deep root in the human heart, and become exclusively the religion of man."

Messrs. Bosler & Co.

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT and FAMILY MEDICINE STORE, New-York,

A FRESH SUPPLY OF THE FOLLOWING

GENUINE MEDICINES.

Dr HAMILTON'S

Grand Restorative.

Prepared (only) by H. LEE, No. 56, Maiden Lane, New-York.

The proprietor of HAMILTON'S RESTORATIVE DROPS confidently recommends it as an invaluable medicine, for the speedy relief and cure of permanent

Nervous Disorders	Violent Cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of Spirits	Melancholy
Loss of Appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of Blood	Pains in the Limbs
Hysterical Affections	Relaxations, &c
Inward Weaknesses

This Medicine is perfectly different in its qualities and operation from those hot and irritating stimulants so frequently proposed for similar purposes, which only recommend themselves by the dangerous rapidity of their effects—and which, acting as a temporary, but violent stimulus on the nervous system, infallibly produces greater evils than those which they are intended to remove.

The principal operation of this medicine is in the stomach, restoring the digestive power, and sending from that organ new health and vigor into every part of the system; it enriches and purifies the blood without stimulating, too violently, the nervous system; strengthens the secretory vessels and general habits, brings back the muscular fibres to their natural and healthy tone, and restores that nutrition which immoderate evacuations have destroyed, and whose loss had thrown the whole frame into languor and debility.

The restorative is absolutely above all commendation in removing those weaknesses and infirmities with which many females are afflicted, the consequences of difficult and painful labours, or of injudicious treatment therein.

In cases of extremity, where the long prevalence and obstinacy of disease have brought on a general impoverisement of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh, which no nourishment or cordial could repair

The Grand Restorative is prepared in Pills, as well as in fluid form, which assists considerably in producing a gradual and lasting effect.

Steam Woolen Manufactory.

THE subscriber has on hand at his manufactory, which he offers for sale, on the most reasonable terms, the following Domestic Cloths, viz.

SUPERFINE BROAD CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATTINETS,

of different qualities, and a great variety of colors, suitable for the approaching season.

Having established his manufactory on an extensive scale, and at a very great expence, he will at all times be able to furnish any orders with which he may be favoured. Although an appeal to the patriotism of his fellow citizens, in support of the infant manufactures of their country, may not alone succeed; yet, when this appeal is made at a time when the rate of exchange between the western and the eastern states is greatly to our disadvantage, interest may induce merchants and others to turn their attention to the promotion and support of their own manufactories.

He assures the public that his prices are such as to be worthy their attention, particularly to those who purchase largely. He will give a credit of six, nine or twelve months, according to the quantity purchased, payable by negotiable notes in either of the banks in Pittsburgh.

He takes this method of returning thanks for the liberal encouragement he has received in the fulling and wool carding business, and requests a continuance.

Country cloth dressed as usual at the shortest notice. Machinery for this purpose being of the most complete kind, and in perfect order.

Public Sale of LAND, ON THE RIVER OHIO.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the Honorable the Supreme Court of the United States, will be sold by public auction, to the highest bidder, at Mason County Court House, (Point Pleasant) Virginia, on the 3d Tuesday in October next, a Tract of Land in the said county, known by the name of

"Graham's Station,"

Lying on the Ohio River, from 18 to 24 miles above the mouth of the Great Kenhawa; containing 600 acres.

This tract is very handsomely situated on a bend of the river, for nearly 6 miles bounded by it, and backwards by two strait lines, being of a triangular form.

Persons of respectability acquainted with it, describe the bottom or low ground on the river, as "from three quarters of a mile to a mile in width, and not inferior in quality to the general average of bottom lands on the Ohio: and that the hill land is well calculated for small grain and good upland farms, although about a third of it does not admit of easy cultivation."

On this land 9 farms, with log houses there on have been laid out, and several hundred acres cleared and under fence. There is a public ferry established from it across the Ohio.—On a large creek is a good site for water works, where formerly was erected a Grist and Saw Mill, now deceased.

A number of respectable and industrious German families were formerly settled on this tract, some of them are probably still there, others in the neighbourhood. These persons are desirous of a speedy settlement thereof, not only with a view to the general improvement of the country, but from the laudable motives of obtaining additional society, and aid towards the support of a Schoolmaster and Preacher.

It is proposed to divide the tract into six lots of 1000 acres each, in order to accommodate purchasers. The terms of payment will be made known on the day of sale. The title has been adjudged by the Supreme Court to be unexceptionable, and deeds will be made to the purchasers, with general warranty free from all incumbrances.

It is wished that persons intending to purchase will, by themselves or agents, examine the land and form their own judgements as to its soil, improvements, situation and local advantages.

Mr. Gideon Hinkle, residing on the adjoining tract, will shew it, or point out a proper person for that purpose, with whom a plat will be lodged.

CURE FOR COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, Sore Throats, and aproaching Consumptions, and most disordes of the breast and lungs.

A SINGLE TRIAL

Will prove, that it restores the determination of the fluid to the surface of the body, and brings on the common healthful perspiration; that it dislodges and evacuates the tough viscid phlegm or mucus, strengthens the weakened vessels of the lungs, sheathes the acrimonious humor which irritates them, and finally discharges it. Thus striking at the root of the disorder, the symptoms are of course effectually and permanently conquered; the reverse of common medicines, which weaken the constitution and give strength to the disorder, for the sake of moderating for the present some of its painful effects.

To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

TO H. LEE.

Being desirous to make public, for the good of others, the excellent quality of HAMILTON'S ELIXIR, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, I have sent you the following account of the benefit I have received from it, which I hope will induce others to give it a trial. In consequence of a bruise on the breast received from a fall, my health grew bad, my breathing became very difficult, and frequently I have had to rise up in my bed, with all the horrors of immediate suffocaton. Add to these a constant pain in my breast, and a cough, a great loss of strength and flesh, and you may conceive that my symptoms evidently indicated an approaching consumption. The advise of a most eminent physician was resorted to, and afterwards a second was called in, but without giving me any relief. Another physician who knew me and the circumstances of my case, advised me to give Hamilton's Elixir a trial, saying, he had used it in his practice, and always found it to do much good A bottle was procured from Mr. Birch's, and I found relief before I had taken half of it. I continued to use it, and was soon strong enough to attend to business. On taking cold some of my former symptoms return, but are always removed by a dose or two of the Elixir.
